I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

From Danyelle McNeill, Arkansas State Archives

Powhatan – The Northeast Arkansas Regional Archives is hosting a workshop from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 23 at the Male and Female Academy in Powhatan. The workshop’s theme, “Paper Conservation: Principles and Practices,” will feature presentations by NEARA Archival Manager Dr. Lisa Perry and conservator Jane Thompson.

Topics include “Basic Conservation Practice and Theory” and “Conversation on a Budget.” There will a hands-on workshop on paper conservation at the end of the day. Participants are asked to bring their own paper materials to work with.

The workshop is free to attend but registration is required. The deadline for registration will be July 20. Registration is limited to 20 people, but there will be a wait list available in case of cancellations, so be sure to register soon. Check-in will begin at 9 a.m. on July 23. Lunch will be provided.

For more information about the workshop or to register, contact northeast.archives@arkansas.gov or call 870-878-6521.
